

NEW ORLEANS.
The news from New Orleans, in this morning, very cheerful reading. The people have asserted themselves, and sent the thief, Kellogg, into retirement. They and their legally-elected officers are in possession of the archives and property of the State, and will remain so unless the proclamation of General Grant be construed to mean that they, and not the unfortunate under Kellogg, are the aggressors against the peace and dignity of the State. This we shall find out in five days, perhaps before. We hope for the best, encouraged by the careful neutrality of the United States troops during the progress of the effort which on Monday night resulted in the defeat of Kellogg.

The people of New Orleans have done a good work, a work that will everywhere receive the indorsement of law-abiding men, and we hope that to-night the citizens of Memphis will as heartily indorse that work as a few days since they condemned unwarranted disorder and bloodshed in our own State. New Orleans and Louisiana need, and should receive, the indorsement of their fellow-citizens of the Union.

From all that can be gathered it seems to be the almost universal impression that, through the meeting to be held at Atlanta on the 15th of October for the ostensible purpose of considering the present condition of affairs in the southern States, and of issuing an address there to the people of the north, the main object is to get an expression from the representatives of the Republican party in the south on the third-term question.

The telegrams from Maine yesterday assert that Dingley (Republican) is elected governor by about thirteen thousand majority, and Speaker Blaine a larger majority than in 1872. The State goes largely Republican.

OBITUARY.
Death of Mrs. John K. Kerr.
Nothing that has occurred here in many years so surprised our citizens as the announcement yesterday afternoon of the death of Colonel John K. Kerr. He was in the enjoyment of good health, and was a frequent visitor to the city. He was a man of high standing in the community, and his death was a great loss to the city.

Nothing that has occurred here in many years so surprised our citizens as the announcement yesterday afternoon of the death of Colonel John K. Kerr. He was in the enjoyment of good health, and was a frequent visitor to the city. He was a man of high standing in the community, and his death was a great loss to the city.

Nothing that has occurred here in many years so surprised our citizens as the announcement yesterday afternoon of the death of Colonel John K. Kerr. He was in the enjoyment of good health, and was a frequent visitor to the city. He was a man of high standing in the community, and his death was a great loss to the city.

Nothing that has occurred here in many years so surprised our citizens as the announcement yesterday afternoon of the death of Colonel John K. Kerr. He was in the enjoyment of good health, and was a frequent visitor to the city. He was a man of high standing in the community, and his death was a great loss to the city.

Nothing that has occurred here in many years so surprised our citizens as the announcement yesterday afternoon of the death of Colonel John K. Kerr. He was in the enjoyment of good health, and was a frequent visitor to the city. He was a man of high standing in the community, and his death was a great loss to the city.

NEW ORLEANS.
The news from New Orleans, in this morning, very cheerful reading. The people have asserted themselves, and sent the thief, Kellogg, into retirement. They and their legally-elected officers are in possession of the archives and property of the State, and will remain so unless the proclamation of General Grant be construed to mean that they, and not the unfortunate under Kellogg, are the aggressors against the peace and dignity of the State. This we shall find out in five days, perhaps before. We hope for the best, encouraged by the careful neutrality of the United States troops during the progress of the effort which on Monday night resulted in the defeat of Kellogg.

From all that can be gathered it seems to be the almost universal impression that, through the meeting to be held at Atlanta on the 15th of October for the ostensible purpose of considering the present condition of affairs in the southern States, and of issuing an address there to the people of the north, the main object is to get an expression from the representatives of the Republican party in the south on the third-term question.

OBITUARY.
Death of Mrs. John K. Kerr.
Nothing that has occurred here in many years so surprised our citizens as the announcement yesterday afternoon of the death of Colonel John K. Kerr. He was in the enjoyment of good health, and was a frequent visitor to the city. He was a man of high standing in the community, and his death was a great loss to the city.

Nothing that has occurred here in many years so surprised our citizens as the announcement yesterday afternoon of the death of Colonel John K. Kerr. He was in the enjoyment of good health, and was a frequent visitor to the city. He was a man of high standing in the community, and his death was a great loss to the city.

Nothing that has occurred here in many years so surprised our citizens as the announcement yesterday afternoon of the death of Colonel John K. Kerr. He was in the enjoyment of good health, and was a frequent visitor to the city. He was a man of high standing in the community, and his death was a great loss to the city.

Nothing that has occurred here in many years so surprised our citizens as the announcement yesterday afternoon of the death of Colonel John K. Kerr. He was in the enjoyment of good health, and was a frequent visitor to the city. He was a man of high standing in the community, and his death was a great loss to the city.

Nothing that has occurred here in many years so surprised our citizens as the announcement yesterday afternoon of the death of Colonel John K. Kerr. He was in the enjoyment of good health, and was a frequent visitor to the city. He was a man of high standing in the community, and his death was a great loss to the city.

NEW ORLEANS.
The news from New Orleans, in this morning, very cheerful reading. The people have asserted themselves, and sent the thief, Kellogg, into retirement. They and their legally-elected officers are in possession of the archives and property of the State, and will remain so unless the proclamation of General Grant be construed to mean that they, and not the unfortunate under Kellogg, are the aggressors against the peace and dignity of the State. This we shall find out in five days, perhaps before. We hope for the best, encouraged by the careful neutrality of the United States troops during the progress of the effort which on Monday night resulted in the defeat of Kellogg.

From all that can be gathered it seems to be the almost universal impression that, through the meeting to be held at Atlanta on the 15th of October for the ostensible purpose of considering the present condition of affairs in the southern States, and of issuing an address there to the people of the north, the main object is to get an expression from the representatives of the Republican party in the south on the third-term question.

OBITUARY.
Death of Mrs. John K. Kerr.
Nothing that has occurred here in many years so surprised our citizens as the announcement yesterday afternoon of the death of Colonel John K. Kerr. He was in the enjoyment of good health, and was a frequent visitor to the city. He was a man of high standing in the community, and his death was a great loss to the city.

Nothing that has occurred here in many years so surprised our citizens as the announcement yesterday afternoon of the death of Colonel John K. Kerr. He was in the enjoyment of good health, and was a frequent visitor to the city. He was a man of high standing in the community, and his death was a great loss to the city.

Nothing that has occurred here in many years so surprised our citizens as the announcement yesterday afternoon of the death of Colonel John K. Kerr. He was in the enjoyment of good health, and was a frequent visitor to the city. He was a man of high standing in the community, and his death was a great loss to the city.

Nothing that has occurred here in many years so surprised our citizens as the announcement yesterday afternoon of the death of Colonel John K. Kerr. He was in the enjoyment of good health, and was a frequent visitor to the city. He was a man of high standing in the community, and his death was a great loss to the city.

Nothing that has occurred here in many years so surprised our citizens as the announcement yesterday afternoon of the death of Colonel John K. Kerr. He was in the enjoyment of good health, and was a frequent visitor to the city. He was a man of high standing in the community, and his death was a great loss to the city.

G. W. JONES & CO.,
WHOLESALE DRUGGISTS
AND DEALERS IN PAINTS, OILS AND COLORS,
No. 257 MAIN STREET.
SPECIAL INDUCEMENTS OFFERED TO CASH PURCHASERS.

W. B. GALBREATH & CO.
COTTON FACTORS
AND COMMISSION MERCHANTS, Staple and Fancy Dry Goods
No. 11 UNION STREET,
Stonewall Block, (Up Stairs.)

W. B. GALBREATH & CO.
NEW FIRM
Clarke, Johnson & Co.
COTTON FACTORS
AND COMMISSION MERCHANTS,
370 Front Street, - Memphis, Tenn.

M. L. MEACHAM & CO.
Wholesale Grocers,
COTTON FACTORS AND SALT AGENTS,
No. 9 UNION STREET, Memphis, Tenn.

B. Lowenstein & Brothers
222, 224 & 246 Main St., cor. Jefferson.
JAS. M. GOODBAR, J. L. GOODBAR,
JNO. R. GILLILAND, ALVAN R. GOODBAR.

Cochran, Crode & Co.
COTTON FACTORS
AND WHOLESALE GROCERS
320 FRONT STREET, MEMPHIS, TENN.

B. J. SEMMES & CO.
NO. 297 MAIN STREET.
CIGARETTES, BRANDES,
Foreign and Native Wines,
ENGLISH AND SCOTCH
Wholesale Dealers in FINE
GROCERIES,
CANNED GOODS, NUTS, SARDINES, BUTTER, CHEESE, ETC.,
From the "El Principe de Gales" Factory at Key West, 284 and 286 MAIN STREET.

TO THE DRY GOODS TRADE
1874 - FALL OF 1874
ENLARGEMENT OF PREMISES!
AND ACTIVE PREPARATIONS FOR A HEAVY FALL TRADE

B. LOWENSTEIN & PROS.
We have pleasure in announcing to our patrons and the general mercantile community of Tennessee, Mississippi, Arkansas, Alabama and Northern Louisiana that we are in receipt of the most varied, largest and most attractive stock of

W. B. GALBREATH & CO.
NEW FIRM
Clarke, Johnson & Co.
COTTON FACTORS
AND COMMISSION MERCHANTS,
370 Front Street, - Memphis, Tenn.

M. L. MEACHAM & CO.
Wholesale Grocers,
COTTON FACTORS AND SALT AGENTS,
No. 9 UNION STREET, Memphis, Tenn.

B. Lowenstein & Brothers
222, 224 & 246 Main St., cor. Jefferson.
JAS. M. GOODBAR, J. L. GOODBAR,
JNO. R. GILLILAND, ALVAN R. GOODBAR.

Cochran, Crode & Co.
COTTON FACTORS
AND WHOLESALE GROCERS
320 FRONT STREET, MEMPHIS, TENN.

B. J. SEMMES & CO.
NO. 297 MAIN STREET.
CIGARETTES, BRANDES,
Foreign and Native Wines,
ENGLISH AND SCOTCH
Wholesale Dealers in FINE
GROCERIES,
CANNED GOODS, NUTS, SARDINES, BUTTER, CHEESE, ETC.,
From the "El Principe de Gales" Factory at Key West, 284 and 286 MAIN STREET.